

THE NATIONAL WILD TURKEY FEDERATION, INC. LEGAL INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The NWTF is a national nonprofit organization and the leader in upland wildlife habitat conservation in North America. Our commitment is to the preservation of the American wild turkey and our hunting heritage. Law clerks may do some or all of the following: (1) research issues on nonprofit governance and on legislative or regulatory matters regarding fish and wildlife conservation; (2) prepare educational materials including newsletters, and presentations; (3) assist with preparing amicus briefs; (4) research and prepare memoranda on novel legal questions.

*Externship credit is available, please indicate that interest in your initial email.
Student must be completed with first year classes & have taken legal research/writing.*

PREFERRED HIRING CRITERIA

An understanding of and interest in the conservation and natural resources field. Preference will be given to students who have taken wildlife or related natural resources courses, who have a strong academic record, and who have an interest in hunting, fishing, and the outdoors. Students must possess the ability to work independently and produce high quality work on a deadline, as well as possess solid research, organizational, and oral and written communication skills. Experience or strong interest in nonprofit governance is preferred.

TERM: Fall 2022 | Remote, Hybrid, or In-Person    APPLICATION DEADLINE: August 19, 2022

SUPERVISING ATTORNEY: Carol Frampton, Chief, Legal Services

HOW TO APPLY

Email a brief cover letter explaining your credentials and interest, resume, unofficial transcript, and a short writing sample to Shelby DeVuyst at sdevuyst@nwtf.net.

